Your itinerary kicks off in fine style as Braemar makes full use of her shorter dimensions to sail along the picturesque Seine River – a setting that has been the inspiration of artists for centuries. Scenic cruising in daylight is endlessly rewarding; make sure you're out on deck for close-up views of gorgeous French countryside, speckled with pretty houses.

A two-night stay in historic Rouen gives plenty of time to capture the essence of the city. There are chances to uncover tales of Joan of Arc and Richard the Lionheart while admiring traditional half-timbered houses on a walking tour; taste the rich flavours of the Normandy region; or embark on an unforgettable evening journey to Paris to see the iconic landmarks in all their illuminated glory.

Finally, Braemar calls into charming Honfleur. With its 16th century streets, eye-catching architecture and old harbour (Vieux Bassin) – a glistening reminder of Normandy's maritime past – it's easy to see why many fall in love with Honfleur. Elsewhere, there are many cosy cafés – perfect for watching the world go by – and rewarding tours are available to the city of Bayeux, where you can view the iconic Bayeux Tapestry.
